STAT

Mr. William Casey was kind enough to provide us recently with a copy of your resume and told us of your interest in a translator's position. Unfortunately, we are not currently recruiting for French translators. We are unable to consider you for a staff position with our organization. U.S. citizenship for at least five years is a condition for employment.

Nevertheless, thank you for your interest in our organization and we wish you the best in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Magee

Thank you for your letter of 30 March. It was good to hear from you.

With regard to your questions about a teaching position, I am afraid that I am not in a position to know of specific openings in local schools. With regard to other types of employment, you may want to consider your own diplomatic service or an international organization such as the World Bank. You may also want to consider one of the larger international corporations such as IBM. The address of their Washington office is attached.

I do not know if you would be interested in doing translations from texts nor am I sure of the availability of positions, but I have taken the liberty of sending your resume to an organization which hires individuals for translation work. They will be in touch with you directly. I have also included the names and addresses of three language schools should you wish to apply to them.

In the meantime, thank you again for your letter and please be sure to contact me if you decide to visit the United States. Please give my regards to your family.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

Thank you for your letter of 30 March. It was good to hear from you.

With regard to your questions about a teaching position, I am afraid that I am not in a position to know of specific openings in local schools. However, should you be interested in pursuing a teaching career in the Washington, D.C. area, I am enclosing the employment address for several of the local school systems. With regard to other types of employment, you may want to consider your own diplomatic service or an international organization such as the United Nations. You may also want to consider one of the larger international corporations such as IBM.

I do not know if you would be interested in doing translations from texts nor am I sure of the availability of positions, but I have taken the liberty of sending your resume to an organization which hires individuals for translation work. They will be in touch with you directly.
